

Puzzled

How is your character puzzled in your story?

To be puzzled is to be confused or unable to understand the problem, situation or object in your story.

Happy

How is your character happy in your story?

To be happy is to be pleased by, or to experience joy by the situation or object in your story.

Active

How is your character active in your story?

To be active is to be involved and interested in the activity occurring in your story.

Friendly

How is your character friendly in your story?

To be friendly is to be helpful and pleasant to others in your story.

Witty

How is your character witty in your story?

To be witty is to be clever or funny when presented with the situation or object in your story.

Anxious

How is your character anxious in your story?

To be anxious is to be worried or nervous by the situation or object in your story.

Rowdy

How is your character rowdy in your story?

To be rowdy is to cause trouble or to be noisy during the activity or situation occurring in your story.

Confident

How is your character confident in your story?

To be confident is to believe in ones abilities to be successful in achieving the goals in your story.

Sneaky

How is your character sneaky in your story?

To be sneaky is say or do something in a secretive and sometimes unfair way during your story.

Stubborn

How is your character stubborn in your story?

To be stubborn is to be unwilling to listen or change a behaviour or opinion during your story.

Curious

How is your character curious in your story?

To be curious is to seek out information about an object or an event occurring in your story.

Polite

How is your character polite in your story?

To be polite is to be respectful and kind towards others in your story.

